To maximize the usefulness of Moving to the Future, we encourage users to modify the worksheets to meet their unique needs. All the worksheets are available in MS Word format, so modifications can be easily done. However, you need to seek copyright permission to modify the worksheets and you need to pay a nominal fee for access to the MS Word files.

To gain access to the MS Word documents, you start by submitting the Copyright Permission Form. You can find the Copyright Permission Form in the Introductory Pages of every chapter or on the website's front page. The permission form contains a schedule of fees for use.

If you are developing a workshop and want to use Moving to the Future you need written copyright permission. If copyright permission is granted, ASTPHND requires a workshop sponsor to purchase access to MS Word files for each person in the workshop.
